

SKILL: Summary

WOMEN'S RIGHTS MOVEMENT/SENECA FALLS CONVENTION

During the 1800's women fought for suffrage (the right to vote). Elizabeth Cady Stanton and Lucretia Mott organized the Seneca Falls Convention for Women's Rights in Seneca Falls, New York, in 1848 to draw attention to the problems women faced. The delegates approved The Declaration of Sentiments, modeled after the U.S. Declaration of Independence. It proclaimed "We hold these truths to be self-evident: that all men and women are created equal." Other women's rights reformers included Susan B. Anthony and Elizabeth Cady Stanton who founded the National American Women Suffrage Association and the American Equal Rights Association. Sojourner Truth was a former slave who was one of the most effective speakers for women's rights and drew huge crowds throughout the North.
