

What Do Attorneys Do?

Name _____

1. A person whose job it is to guide and assist people in matters relating to the law.
2. A person who sees something (such as a crime) happen
3. The qualities that a person is expected to have as a responsible member of a community.
4. Legal agreements between people, companies, etc.
5. Careful study that is done to find and report new knowledge about something.
6. To speak or act for (someone or something) in a court of law.
7. A discussion between people in which they express different opinions about something.
8. A group of people who are members of the public and are chosen to make a decision in a legal case.

What Do Attorneys Do?

1. A person whose job it is to guide and assist people in matters relating to the law.
2. A person who sees something (such as a crime) happen
3. The qualities that a person is expected to have as a responsible member of a community.
4. Legal agreements between people, companies, etc.
5. Careful study that is done to find and report new knowledge about something.,
6. To speak or act for (someone or something) in a court of law.
7. A discussion between people in which they express different opinions about something.
8. A group of people who are members of the public and are chosen to make a decision in a legal case.